The imbecility of some men is always inviting the embrace of death. It is the delight of such men to boast of what "tough fellows" they are, and tell how they overwork themselves and how they neglect little disorders and little illnesses that put other people on their backs.

It may not sound wise to say so, but it is a fact that the average man is just that kind of a boastful, cheerful idiot. If his head aches, it isn't worth paying any attention to; if he feels dull and drowsy during the day, it isn't worth serious consideration; if he is troubled with sleeplessness at night, he does himself with opiates. When he suffers from nervousness, he walks into the nearest drug store and orders powerful medicines that even a physician prescribes with care. He is a very knowing fellow, but without knowing it, he is hugging death. There is a wonderful restorative tonic and health-builder that will keep the hardest working man in good working shape; it is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made of pure native roots and barks. It contains no minerals, no narcotics and no opiates. It simply aids nature in the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It tones up the stomach and facilitates the flow of digestive juices. It makes a man "hungry as a horse" and then sees to it that the life-giving elements of the food he takes are assimilated into the blood. It invigorates the liver. It drives out all impurities and disease germs from the system. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It is the best of all nerve tonics. It cures bronchial, throat and lung affections as well.

"I had indigestion and a torpid liver," writes Mrs. A. L. Gibbs, of Russellville, Logan County, Ky. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured me."

If constipation is also present, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken. They never fail, they never gripe. Druggists sell both medicines.

A UNIVERSITY YOUTH'S RHAPSODY.

If I were the King of the World, my love,
And you were its beautiful Queen—
We would right the wrongs that are wrought by hate,
By jealousy, coldness and spleen.
All tyrants, save Love, would be snatched from their thrones
And be drowned in the depths of the sea,
All slaves, save Love's vassals, would cast off their chains,
Would lift up their heads and be free.

If I were the King of the World, my love,
And you were its beautiful Queen—
A palace we'd rear on a far, southern strand
Where the sea hath a silvery sheen,
Where the glow never dies from the sunset skies
And the tints never fade from the flowers,
Where melodies ring as the merry birds sing
In their nests in the tropical bowers.

If I were the King of the World, my love,
And you were its beautiful Queen—
I would wreath you a crown of roses fair,
Interleafed with the myrtle green.
In our palace grand on that southern strand
We would happily reign, I ween,
If I were the King of the World, my love,
And you were its beautiful Queen.

—W. M. Gotwaldt.

THEY SPOKE
THE VOWS
Mr. Sullivan and Miss Groton Were Married Yesterday Morning.
At 7:30 yesterday morning in the Catholic church Rev. Father Reynolds pronounced the blessing of the church upon the union of hearts and hands of James R. Sullivan and Miss Mary Groton, both well known and popular young people of this city.
M. T. Groton acted as best man and the bride was attended by Miss Julia Groton.
The bride wore a gray traveling gown and the groom was attired in conventional black.
After the ceremony had been performed and congratulations tendered, the newly married couple and guests partook of a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother on Center street.
Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left on the 9 o'clock train for California where they will spend their honeymoon and afterwards return to this city to reside.

DEMURRER SUSTAINED IN MILLS-WILLIAMS CASE.
The decision of Judge Ourler on the demurrer in the Mills-Williams ten thousand dollar libel suit is in brief as follows:
Nowhere in the first or second causes of action did it appear from any allegation therein that Lester H. Williams was in any way connected with the publication of the articles complained of.
That in the second and third causes of action the matters which were alleged in the first cause by way of matters of inducement, which were necessary parts of each cause of action, were not set forth.
Therefore, neither cause of action alleged in the complaint, considered by itself as an entirety, stated facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, in itself, independent of allegations appearing in other causes of action.
The first and second causes considered independently did not effect in any way the defendant Williams.
The demurrer was further sustained on the grounds that there was misjoinder of causes of action. On other grounds the demurrer was overruled.
Ten days were given in which to file an amended complaint.

At Gay Coney Island.
Stanley Whiting, one of the proprietors of the Gay Coney Island Company, is in town, and this is what he says of his show:
"At Gay Coney Island' is funny enough to make a clown of a stolid. Audiences assemble in theaters in pleasurable anticipation of an evening entertainment. The curtain rises. Trouble begins at once. The comedians train their rapid-fire guns upon the receptive and expectant audience. Right well the jolly jokers aim at the very citadel in the stronghold of the risibilities of the listener. On and on the grateful and willing audience is led until the hedges of hilarity are passed, and finally they become hopelessly lost in a veritable wilderness of wit."
The show ought to be good.

A Life and Death Fight.
Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Saw Him Off.
A number of students came down town last night to say farewell to Frank Lockman, who left on the late train for Angola Camp where he has a position in a chlorination works.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

IT WILL BE A MODEL PLANT

The Extensive Improvements Being Made By R. W. L. & L. Co.

The Reno Water, Land & Light company expects to have its new electric lighting system completed and in operation by the first of March.
Seventy-five thousand dollars have been spent in making this the most modern and up-to-date plant of its size on the Pacific coast.
Water will of course be the motive power, although a 500 horse power Corliss engine and boiler will be installed as an auxiliary in case of low water or other necessity.
This dam is a substantial structure costing $10,000. It is so closely built that in the latter part of the summer the entire river can be diverted from its channel.
Acting on the request of the California board of Fish Commissioners, the company has put in an excellent fish ladder.
The head gate takes out a volume of water ten feet square. The old ditch will be used to the old power house after which the water is conducted a mile further by a new ditch and flume, which falls at the rate of an eighth of an inch a rod. In the distance of a mile and one-half this gives a fall at the new station of forty-five feet.
There were some engineering difficulties encountered in conveying the water but they have been overcome. It was necessary at one place to make a deep cut which entailed an expense of $3,000. The flume is a substantial structure, carrying 8892 cubic feet a minute.
Several hundred yards from the power station the flume ends and the water is conveyed the balance of the distance in a triple line of redwood pipes.
Power is generated by means of a 500 Horse power McCormack turbine wheel. The arrangements are such that another wheel of the same capacity can be added.
In architectural design and solidity of construction the power house is an ornament to Reno. It is perfectly fire-proof, being constructed of brick and stone. The latter was all obtained on the ground and was dressed in order to improve the appearance of the walls and give the structure greater strength.
The power house is 50 feet wide and 107 feet long, independent of the annex whose dimensions are 26 by 30 feet.
The description of this plant will be continued tomorrow.

A Steamboat.

Sunday morning's Call and Examiner contained a fabrication concerning Miss Myrtle Montrose of this city, stating that she would shortly undergo an operation which threatened to be fatal.
There was no basis for the story, as Miss Montrose is at present enjoying her usual excellent health.
The publication of these articles, one of which was illustrated, was evidently the work of some scamp who deems himself a practical joker.
The Chronicle would have also published the "steamboat," but, to be certain of its truth, it wired the local correspondent, who informed the paper of its mistake.

Business Briefs.

Trade still continues brisk at H. L.
McDuffee's tailoring establishment in the Quinn building. Harry is looking for a pants maker, in fact, the shop is running to its full capacity and it looks as if there was work for a dozen tailors in his establishment.

In another column will be found the announcement of Fred Horath of the Dawey saloon. Horath during the few months he has conducted this establishment has made of it a popular resort, and is well deserving the patronage so liberally bestowed upon him. Mr. Horath's place of business is located on Plaza street, near the opera house.

Mrs. Murphy will move her millinery establishment in the Quinn building early next week. Mrs. Murphy will have an interesting announcement at that time, so watch for it.
